

Is that payment email genuine?

Fraudsters send emails containing modified invoices and requests to update wage or other payment details.

Spoofed email addresses are often used to make them appear to come from your genuine suppliers and staff.

Real logos and content can make them seem authentic.

Always take time to review and confirm payment changes using another trusted means of contact, such as via a verified phone number already held on file.